

At the end of February, I traveled to Stuttgart, Germany, for a weekend of meetings with National Motivators for Mission-Net from across Europe. Working with this team thrills me, inspires me, and challenges me to hold on to the vision to see spiritual revival for Europe through the faith in action of its young people. The Congress for European young adults will take place in Venray, the Netherlands, from 28 December - 02 January, but the work of challenging Europeans to live with a heart for mission and out of a transformational love for Jesus Christ happens every day. As National Motivator for Romania, I seek new ways to encourage my dear Romanians towards transformation in their lives, their communities, and their world — Mission-Net is much more than a week-long congress, it's a movement!

In addition to leading the National Motivator team for Romania, Mihai and I will serve the participants at the congress in providing an area devoted to prayer, spiritual care, and direction. We are honored to serve in this way! As a part of this prayer ministry, I am working with other leaders from across Europe to develop a Mission-Net prayer guide that will be written by young leaders from every nation of Europe, focusing on the needs and challenges they are facing. Additionally, each nation will assess the sin of the nation that needs to be confessed so that freedom and transformation can take hold!

This is the group of motivators who gathered for the weekend to dream and pray for unity through diversity that will soften the spiritual soil and bring about revival in Europe. Representatives came from Austria, Macedonia, France, Portugal, Romania, Holland, Latvia, Switzerland, Slovenia, Italy, Finland, and the UK.

As ever, we covet your prayers in this opportunity to serve! We are praying that God will provide for at least 50 young Romanians to participate in the Congress. The travel to Venray and the registration will cost about 300 euros/person. This is a high number, especially in the life of a young Romanian, but we believe God will make a way and will be glorified through our sacrifice and service! Thank you for partnering with us in this journey — we couldn't do it without you!!

Grace and peace to you! Your Ro-maniacs,

Mihai & Tammy
